COOKIE POLICY

INFORMATION ABOUT USE OF COOKIES

Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and also allows us to improve our site.

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive.

We use the following cookies:
- Strictly necessary cookies. These are cookies that are required for the operation of our website. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our website.
- Analytical/performance cookies. They allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.
- Functionality cookies. These are used to recognise you when you return to our website. This enables us to personalise our content for you by remembering your preferences.

Our website is hosted by Squarespace. For a complete breakdown of the cookies that are used and how long they are stored before expiring please visit:

If you navigate to an external website that is not owned by us via a link on our website, please check the site owner's own Privacy Notice and Cookie Policy, to see how they process your data.

When visiting our website, you can 'opt in' or 'opt out' of our use of cookies using the pop up banner. You can also block cookies directly in your browser by activating the setting on your browser that allows you to refuse the setting of all or some cookies. However, if you use your browser settings to block all cookies (including essential cookies) you may not be able to access all, or parts, of our site.
